MONTHLY UPDATE

For the month of September 2021, the KKR Credit Income • Fund ("KKC" or the "Trust") recorded a total net return of +0.89%².

KKC declared a distribution of A$0.01 (+0.40%¹) for September. This is the third of KKC's monthly distributions in line with the updated distribution policy. KKC expects investors to receive A$0.01 per month for the current financial year².

As announced on 15 September 2021, KKC commenced a buy-back on 29 September 2021, and has also begun the process to consider the establishment of an Australian unlisted credit fund. The unlisted credit fund is expected to have the ability to purchase KKC units.

US high yield bonds ("HYBs") reported a return of +0.20% and US senior loans also reported a gain of +0.69%³ during the month. The larger monthly performance in loans was partly driven by increased demand for floating rate assets given continued inflation worries by market participants.

The Yield to Maturity for the underlying assets in KKC (which is inversely impacted by an increase in price), stood at 7.2% as of August month-end⁴. The weighted average price of assets in the portfolio stands at 100.3%. The current yield of the underlying assets in the portfolio was 6.9% as at month end⁴.

Some month to month changes in the underlying portfolio are as follows. All these movements reference the portfolio change between 31 August 2021 and 30 September 2021:⁵

- The number of issuers in the portfolio increased marginally to 174;
- The concentration of the top 10 holdings increased slightly to 22.1%. Movement in the top 10 relates to the calling/repayment of US logistics business Kenan Advantage's fixed rate bond. KKC's top 10 holdings are further detailed on the next page;
- The proportion of floating rate assets increased to 65%. Loans and other floating rate assets can act as a natural hedge vs. rising rates as the coupons are generally based on 3-month LIBOR (i.e. quarterly rate reset or duration of ~0.25yrs). The portfolio is still intentionally overweight floating rate assets and the portfolio currently has a low duration of 1.4 years compared to ~4 years for the bond market as a whole;
- Consumer Discretionary and Industrials remain the two largest sectors at 26% and 25% respectively; and
- KKC's exposure to senior assets currently stands at 90%.

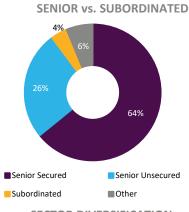

EDL did not participate in any new deals during the month but it did participate in an add-on to an existing position in a Swedish software business. There were no realisations during the month.

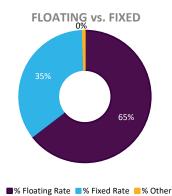

EDL was ~42% net deployed (on a Cost basis) across 20 privately originated assets as at month end.
