MONTHLY UPDATE

For the month of February 2021, the KKR Credit Income Fund ("KKC" or the "Trust") recorded a month-end NTA return of +0.29%.

For the same month, US high yield bonds ("HYBs") reported a return of +0.44% and US senior loans had a positive return of +0.60%². These gains were in contrast 10-year Treasuries and Investment Grade Bonds which returned a negative -3.1% and -2.0% respectively on fears of higher inflation.

The highest performing sectors in the HYB market were Energy (+2.7%) and Transportation (+2.2%). These are not sectors that KKC has high exposures to given their historic volatility.

US HYB mutual funds reported net outflows in February. Specifically, HY funds reported a USD$3.0bn (A$3.9bn) net outflow during the month². Fund flows are an important metric to track as this creates demand for assets, impacting prices in the market.

KKC has no direct exposure to Greensill and any secondary impacts are expected to be muted.

As a reminder, KKC has begun moving its holding from the Global Credit Opportunities Fund ("GCOF") into a separately managed account wholly owned by KKC. The first part of this occurred in January (80% of assets). The second and final transfer will occur in April (20% of assets). This optimisation is being done to lower the ultimate cost to investors and increase the flexibility and liquidity within KKC on a go-forward basis.

The Yield to Maturity for the underlying assets in KKC (which is inversely impacted by an increase in price), stood at 7.7% as of February month-end³. The weighted average price of assets in the portfolio stands at 100.0%. The current yield of the underlying assets in the portfolio was 7.0% as at month end³.

Some month to month changes in the underlying portfolio are described below. All these movements reference the portfolio change between 31 January 2021 and 28 February 2021:⁴

- the number of issuers in the portfolio decreased to 202;
- the concentration of the top 10 holdings remained at 23.3%;
- The proportion of floating rate assets has increased to 64%, giving some increased protection from a potential increase in inflation. Loans can act as a natural hedge vs. rising rates as the coupons are generally based on 3-month LIBOR (i.e. quarterly rate reset or duration of ~0.25yrs).
- Consumer Discretionary and Industrials remain the two largest sectors at 25% each;
- Including EDL assets (which are primarily not rated), the ratings split is as follows: 32% of assets are rated B, 41% rated CCC and 19% of the portfolio is Not Rated⁵; and
- KKC's exposure to senior assets currently stands at 91%.

EDL had no new additions or realisations during the month. EDL was ~34% net deployed (on a Cost basis) across 18 privately originated assets as at month end.
